Multiculturalism / Anti-Racism / Discrimination

Guelph Pride recognizes that the ethno-cultural and racial diversity among residents of Guelph has brought cultural, social, and economic enrichment to the community. It also recognizes that the members of diverse ethno-cultural and racial groups often encounter barriers to their full participation in society.

Guelph Pride is committed to racial equality and the elimination of racism in the community. It strives to reflect the entire community in its structure (for members and volunteers) and to promote equal access to its programs and services (for community members and the general public).

To this end, Guelph Pride will strive to ensure that:

- Recruitment of volunteers, and committee membership is reflective of the community served, specifically by prioritizing the involvement and leadership of those within racialized LGBT2IQ+ communities;
- Events are sensitive to the needs of culturally and racially diverse groups and that the specific groups are part of the planning of the events reflecting their community;
- Events seek to eliminate systemic barriers to full participation and promote positive race relations and attitudinal change;

2. Informing all volunteers that racial harassment and discrimination are not only gross as hell - it is also against our philosophy and the guiding mission of Guelph Pride. ??
3. Making volunteers aware that racial harassment complaints will be taken seriously, including informing volunteers about the complaint and dispute resolution procedures.
4. Ensuring that application and promotion practices are reviewed and, if necessary, revised, in order to eliminate overt or systemic barriers to involvement and full participation in Guelph Pride planning and events.

7. Actively promoting the policy both internally and externally.

Sexual & Gender Harassment

Sexual harassment is illegal under the Ontario Human Rights Code. Sexual harassment does not have to be sexual in nature. It can mean that someone is bothering you simply because of your sex (male/female/intersex/etc) or your gender identity (for example, you are transgender). Sexual harassment describes a number of types of behaviour, including:

- Unwelcome touching, or touching a person without their consent;
- Suggestive or other sexually aggressive remarks;
- Making stereotypes about a person based on their sex or gender identity;
- Leering (staring at a person's body);
- Compromising invitations;
- Physical assault;
- Reprisal or threat of reprisal by a supervisor for the rejection of such behaviour.

Sexual harassment happens most often to women, but it also happens to men, and the rates of harassment against gender non-conforming people and trans people are also staggeringly high. Sexual harassment can happen between dissimilar genders and similar genders, or be targeted at someone based on gender identity. Usually sexual harassment is a pattern of behaviour that happens frequently over a period of time. However, a single incident can be serious enough to be considered harassment.

Duty to Report Harassment or Discrimination

All volunteers have a duty to report in writing all behaviour of an allegedly discriminatory or harassing nature. Reports must be made immediately, or as soon as possible, after the alleged incident or behaviour.

Harassment or Discrimination by another Volunteer/Member

All volunteers and members have a right to file a complaint against another volunteer who allegedly engages in harassing or discriminatory behaviour without fear of retaliation.

Retaliation against a volunteer who reports alleged harassment or discrimination is illegal and will not be tolerated.

All volunteers have a duty to report in writing all behaviour of a discriminatory and harassing nature. Reports must be made immediately, or as soon as possible, after the incident.

If the volunteer did not directly observe the alleged discriminatory or harassing behaviour before reporting the incident in writing, they shall briefly determine the circumstances, nature and seriousness of the alleged behaviour.

Reports can be made using the online anonymous feedback survey, linked on the Guelph Pride website, which you can also find here.

Fiscal Responsibility Policy

In order to minimize risk and provide better transparency to both funders, governing bodies (Out on the Shelf) and to current and prospective members, as well as the communities we serve, Guelph Pride has adopted the following fiscal responsibility policy.

Guelph Pride is committed to responsible spending and controlled expenditure growth to support the goals and priorities of the committee, the festival(s), and the wider LGBT2QI+ communities we serve. We are dedicated to plan for and realize operating surpluses, to create a base from which the planning committee may draw from for each festival and to eliminate any foreseeable over spending. The committee will also strive to increase it's annual fundraising revenue so as to provide financial assistance to priority community organizers' events and programming. The following policy is made to ensure the long term sustainability of Guelph Pride and our operating budgets, year after year.

Procedure

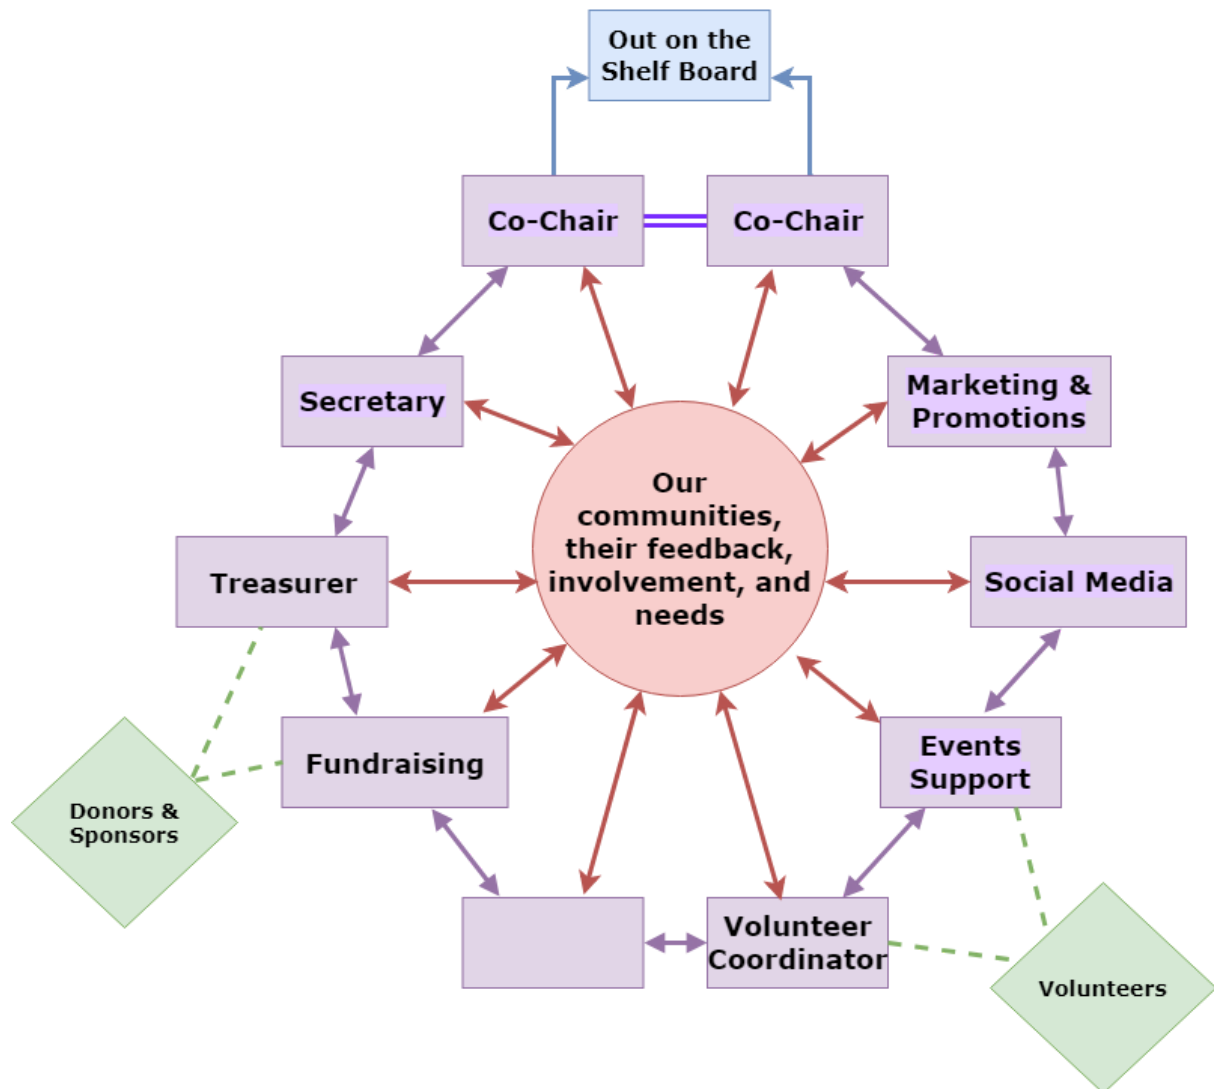

Overall:

- The Guelph Pride budget runs from July until June of the following year, however the Out on the Shelf fiscal year is from January until December. All expenses and revenue needs to be documented and sent to Out on the Shelf for the January - June and the July - December segments of each year, so as to have a final budget that is reflective of both the committee's spending that year as well as Out on the Shelf's overall finances.
- Revenue is always recorded the month, ideally the day, it was received, as well as the method of payment (online, cheque, or money order for sponsorships, any method for smaller/personal donations).
- Guelph Pride Committee will work to reduce the use of cash and the number of people who handle cash. Only volunteers working under the guidance of the Fundraising Coordinator, the Financial Coordinator/Treasurer, or potentially the Co-Chairs should be handling cash for Guelph Pride, including: donations, sponsorship, tickets/admission revenue, and other profits incurred during official Guelph Pride events.
- All sponsorship and donations must be recorded in the Guelph Pride's annual master spreadsheet. All sponsorship and donations should be received by the Fundraising Coordinator, Treasurer, or designated fundraising volunteers who are working under the supervision of the Fundraising Coordinator. If an individual on the committee receives a donation, they should direct it to the Fundraising Coordinator or the Treasurer, along with all of the donors pertinent details, as soon as possible.

Events:

- All event organizers are required to complete an estimated budget before their event, included in the Official Event Form as well as the Third Party Event Application.
- All event organizers are required to complete a final (“Actual”) budget upon completion of their event, included in the “Post-Event Organizer Survey”, where they will be asked to include any receipts, invoices, and other documentation of the costs which they are seeking reimbursement from the Guelph Pride account.
- If Guelph Pride provides a float, two people count before and after and initial a float count sheet.
- Designated Fundraising volunteers will be present at each event, those looking to make a donation to Guelph Pride should be directed to these individuals, who will ideally work in pairs, and be asked to sign an additional fiscal responsibility agreement.
- Sponsorship for individual events must still abide by the Guelph Pride sponsorship guidelines, including method of payment (online, cheque, or money order - cash is not accepted for sponsorship). Upon receiving the sponsorship, the amount will be earmarked for the events specified by the donor and the organizer’s may provide receipts for reimbursement from these funds specifically.

Guelph Pride will strive to ensure it's approaches to governance are:

- Efficient
- Accountable
- Transparent
